

Workforce Retention Speaker

Laura Leaton

Laura has a natural gift for helping individuals discover their inner strengths and achieving personal and professional success. She is an expert in leadership development and coaching, and has always been drawn to leading high performing teams. After her time as a successful Division I Collegiate Women's Volleyball coach, Laura built stronger leaders and teams for 18+ years with a global Fortune 500 company, and today, she coaches and trains leaders across the country to reach greater heights.

She understands the challenges surrounding profit, people, time and transition, and has a reputation of employing a personal, dynamic approach to affecting change.
